But this insurrection appears to have aroused the ire of Russia to a great pitch, and it is to be feared that rigorous stops will be taken to reduce the revolted Khanates to submission. The Goloss writes warmly on the subject. It says:—" Every commotion in these Khanates exercises a disturbing influence upon our own territory, agquired with the blood of our gallant troops. with Khans unable to maintain order and them?" The Khokandees will soon be com-KAUPMANN and the valour and discipline of his troops. And Khokand, when conquered, and the KHAN put-aside. The number of steamers included among these vessels amounts to 454, with an aggregate of 42,942 tons and 57.513 horse power: 100 of these steamers are of 200-horse power and upwards, 89 of from 100 to 200, 97 of from 60 to 100, 83 of from 39 to 50 and 86 of 30 and less. The number of vessels annually entering and leaving the French ports mounts to 119,000, and their tonnage is estimated at more than 10,500,000. Of these vessels 91,000 trade between the ports of the Channel and the Atlantic, and 28,000 in the Mediter raugan. The coast fishery employs 9,250 vessels, with a total tonnage of 71,850 tons, and

THE GERMAN ARMY.

The Berlin War Office seems at last to hav found out the way to make compulsory military service thoroughly unpopular. Having raised the physical standard for the recruit so high escape for those who come up to it-19 out of every 20 who fully resolved it last year were taken on the rolls—it is now making the autumn mancavres so severe as to raise a reneval outfor its patriotic sentiments, as the Wear Zeitung is, such expressions as the following --- "Th excitement reigns in those particular circles where there is the warmest sympathy for tha Army and the highest respect for its officers And there is quite discornment enough among this part of the public to know that exertion and even danger are insensiable from the statement that the jewellery was left there making of a soldier. But there is a due

CURIOUS INTERNATIONAL CASE. A curious point of international law has been brought to light in a correspondence just issued especting the German vessel Turandot, captured by a French cruiser during the Franco-German war. It seems that the cargo of the vessel was insured by a London firm for the sum of £6,400. The foods in question were sold by the Prize Court at Pur s for a little His Lordship then adjourned the case till over £4,000, and the money sent to the Foreign Minister at Berlin for distribution among those the only persons who could be entitled to the proverb that if such men gave any attention to were justly entitled to the proceeds of the education they were certain to fail in their sale. The case seems a very simple one, business. Even now, indeed, there are many and entirely justifies the position taken up deslike to seeing their children more literate claims of the underwriters, stating that they than themselves. The unniversary of the buttle of Sedan was celebrated at Berlin on the 1st September by a grand parade of the troops in garrison at Berlin, Spandan, and Potsdam, on the exercising ground at Templebof at bleven in the forencon. A Standard telegram envs that in spite of rain and mud about 15,000 persons collected on the round. The troops, mudo hip of envalry infantry, artillery train. &c., were commanded by Prince Augustus of Wurtemberg. The Emperor arrived in a carriage, but witnessed the parade from horseback. Prince Charles, Prince rederick Charles, the Empress and Princess Thurles were also on the ground. Among the initory and foreigners present were Prince Leopold of Bavaria, the Dake of Connaught, British and Bavarian officers, Turks, Russians, Armenians, and Japanese. In the afternoon there was a grand state dinner at the Royal Palace, and in the evening there was to be gala performance at the Opera.

Her parties will continue the exploration of the north coast of Greenland, and a depot will be formed beyond Cape Stanton. A party will go to Hall's grave and examine the stores. Another, with dogs, will communicate with the first at the entrance of Smith Sound, and leave despatches and letters there. It is fully expected that some vessel will go to the entrance of Smith Sound to communicate and receive news in the summer of 1876, and a boat will probably be sent down by the Discovery during the autumn. The probability of passing a second winter in the ice, and of not being able to complete the work until 1877, has been considered. If no news is obtained of the Alert by the Discovery in 1876, Captain Stephen ean is to make a second attempt to communicate in 1877; but if there is still no news, the Discovery is to hand all provisions that can be spared and to go home in August, 1877, for it may then be concluded that the Alert has advanced nearer to Cape Bismarck than to Robason Channel, and may be expected to come out on the cast coast of Greenland. Many boxes of letters are received at the Post Office not sealed, that is to say, the box is fastened with sealing wax, but there is no impression of a seal. The undersigned would oull the attention of boxholders to the necessity of exesfully sealing such boxes with some recognisable seal, and of sending a Chit-book or receipt with them. The omission of the latter precaution leaves a doubt as to weather the contents of the box ever reached the Post Office; the omission of the former, as to whether part of them might not have been abstracted for the sake of the Postage
